2. Photos – for the Jackson County Herald/Tribune will be on Wednesday, September 15, 2010 at 4:30pm at the Jackson County Services Building. Contestants should dress causal for the newspaper picture. You will be drawing for contestant numbers at this time. If you are unable to attend, a contestant number will be drawn for you. We will also be discussing pageant rules and the contestant essay at this time.

Please bring your completed essay form and your signed rule sheet with you when you come if you haven't done so already. You will be practicing your welcome speech, walking through the pageant, practicing your turns and also talking about where you need to be and at what time the day of the pageant. Please feel free to ask any questions you may have about anything on this day.
4. Parade – Saturday, October 2, 2010. We will let you know where we will be meeting and at what time at pageant practice on September 26th. Please make sure you wear blue jeans/capris (no shorts) with your JCYF t-shirt. After the parade, you will be dismissed until the interviews.
5. Interviews – Saturday, October 2, 2010 at the Jackson County Services Building at 4:00pm. Three out of county judges will conduct interviews based on the information you presented in your essay. The interviews will not last longer than 5 minutes and a pageant committee member will be keeping official time to make sure that no interview lasts longer than the 5 minute mark. All contestants must stay until all girls are finished interviewing. Miss Congeniality will also be voted on at this time.
